ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS

ARCHDIOCESE OF ST. LOUIS
FAMILY WITNESS STATEMENT

For those seeking to enroll their children in a Catholic School or a Parish School of Religion.

One of the blessings of marriage is bringing forth new life. God entrusts children to parents who have a primary right and duty to educate their children in the practice of the faith. Parents carry out this responsibility by creating a home full of love, forgiveness, respect and fidelity. The family is the community in which, from childhood, one honors God and learns moral values.

In the rite of the Sacrament of Baptism, parents receive the following call from God to evangelize their children:

“You have asked to have your child baptized. In doing so you are accepting the responsibility of training him/her in the practice of the faith. It will be your duty to bring him/her up to keep God’s commandments as Christ taught us, by loving God and our neighbor. You will be the first teachers of your child in the ways of the faith. May you be also the best of teachers, bearing witness to the faith by what you say or do, in Christ Jesus our Lord.”

No wonder, then, that the Church understands the home to be the domestic church. It is in the intimate environment of the family that parents are, by word and example, the first heralds of the faith with respect to their children. This environment is enhanced and deepened through the parish Eucharistic community that is the heart of the spiritual life for Christian families.

Catholic schools and parish religious education programs are in partnership with the family in proclaiming and witnessing to the life and teaching of Jesus Christ. They assist parents in fulfilling their responsibility as the primary religious educators of their children. This partnership works best when parents respect the beliefs of the Church and live lives in a manner that reflect these beliefs. If parents reject the beliefs of the Church or live lives in conflict with these teachings, catechizing young people becomes very difficult.

Aware, then, of the dignity of this holy parental call, and with a reverent awe for that responsibility, which is mine, I commit myself to be, in word and example, the first and best teacher of my children in the faith. Practically, this means I will:

- ❖ Understand that the authentic teachings of Jesus as taught by the Catholic Church will be part of my child’s education and formation
- ❖ To the best of my ability, respect the teachings of the Church and help my children respect the Church and its teachings
- ❖ Regularly participate in the Sunday Eucharist with my family (if not Catholic, support my children’s participation in the Church of Baptism), include prayer in my daily life and form my children in the faith
- ❖ Commit to speak frequently with my children about God and to include prayer in our daily home life
- ❖ Participate in and cooperate with the parish School of Religion in programs that enable me as a parent to take an active role in the religious education of my children, including sacramental preparation for Catholic children
- ❖ Support the moral and social doctrine of the Catholic church to ensure consistency between home and school
- ❖ Teach my children by word and example to have a love and concern for the needs of others
- ❖ Meet my financial responsibilities in supporting the Parish School of Religion
- ❖ Practice stewardship in support of the parish.

Participation in Chastity Education Program
Grades 4-8

I understand that God's Own Making, the chastity education program, approved for use in PSR programs throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis, will be taught during the MQP regular PSR classes. God's Own Making is a supplemental program that grounds our chastity education firmly in Church teaching and supports parents in raising morally responsible young people. God's Own Making takes a developmental approach regarding three themes: "Respect for Life", "We are Relational", and "We are Life-giving and Life-loving". It does not include the "facts of life", that is, no physical or developmental changes will be discussed.

As long as my child/children is/are enrolled at Mary Queen of Peace PSR, I give my permission for participation in the chastity education program, God's Own Making.
