A NEW WEEK — FR. JOHN VIEN

Catholics in the Archdiocese of St. Louis and the faithful all over the world will celebrate the Feast of Saint Louis, King of France, this coming Thursday, August 25. As the patron of our Archdiocese, our City, and our County, those of us who are Catholics in St. Louis should have a special devotion to this holy man of God. I often invoke his prayers and intercession for our community, and I encourage all of you to do the same. Let us all ask Saint Louis to bless and guide and protect and heal this city and community that bears his name!

So who was Saint Louis? He ruled France in the 13th century during a time of great cultural achievement. It was a time when cathedrals were being built, universities established, hospitals organized, and an equitable court system established.

His deep Catholic faith and spirituality was instilled in him by his mother, Blessed Blanche of Castille, and he lived his life as man of constant prayer, devoted to justice and to charity. He was dedicated to his family and his country, but most of all to his Catholic faith.

Louis became king at the age of eleven in 1226. He was guided and protected by his mother until he reached his teenage years. At the age of 20, he married his wife Margaret and together they had eleven children.

Saint Louis cared about his people and sought to mitigate the harsh life of the feudal system. He encouraged religious orders and the growth of the Church in France, he forbade usury or excessive interest on loans, he personally fed the needy from his own table, and he made it a priority to see that the poor received fair treatment and fair trial. He built the magnificent Sainte Chappelle in Paris as a shrine for the Crown of Thorns, which he had received and is often portrayed as holding in his hands. He led crusades to the Holy Land that were not militarily successful, but while on crusade he always insisted that any prisoners be treated with respect. Louis himself was taken prisoner while on crusade, and after his release, he died of typhoid fever at age 56. King Lear is described in the play of the same name as "every inch a king." We could say of Louis IX of France that he was "every inch a saint," for he was a Christian king in name and in spirit.

The life of Saint Louis reminds us that power does not have to corrupt. Power can be used to create some measure of justice, lighten the burden of people's lives, exemplify virtue, and strengthen the community and the Church. How we need the example and intercession of Saint Louis even now for the leaders of our Church, our nation, and our city and community! Let us pray for all those in positions of leadership and power in our Church and society, that they may always work for the common good and serve those most in need.

Louis also reminds us of the need to work for justice, a timely reminder for all of us at this difficult time in the history of our nation and our community, burdened by so much inequity, strife, and senseless violence.

So on this feast, let us pray for our City, our County, and our Archdiocese, and let us pray that all those in authority at any level, and all of us who are called Christians, may be instruments of God's justice and peace. Saint Louis, King of France, pray for us!

What is the Beyond Sunday Parish Share?

As you have heard from previous announcements, Beyond Sunday is a landmark campaign designed to ensure a lasting legacy for the future of our local parish communities and Catholic education in the Archdiocese of St. Louis. It is the fulfillment of Archbishop Robert Carlson's vision to strengthen Catholic education for generations to come. He has asked every parish in the Archdiocese of St. Louis to participate in an Archdiocesan-wide campaign that is being conducted by the Roman Catholic Foundation of Eastern Missouri. Through this historic campaign, the Roman Catholic Foundation seeks to:

1. Invest in our parish communities by sharing 40% of what is raised at each parish to address the parish's self-identified needs; and
2. Transform Catholic education throughout the Archdiocese of St. Louis.

For more information, please visit beyondsundaystl.org

RCIA: JOURNEY OF FAITH

September will bring the beginning of the annual Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) program, which culminates with the sacraments of initiation at the Easter Vigil. The MQP RCIA team will host an informational session at 7pm Wed, Sept. 14, in the Cafeteria. Anyone interested can also call the Parish Office for more info.

PARISH LEADERSHIP FORUM

All leaders of our parish organizations, ministries, and committees have been invited to a Parish Leadership Forum on Sat, Aug. 27, beginning with 8:00am Mass here at MQP, continuing with Coffee and Donuts and information and formation in the school cafeteria, and concluding by 12:30 pm. At this gathering, Fr. John, our Parish Council, & our parish leaders will celebrate our faith and successes & plan for our future, especially as we align our efforts with the Archdiocesan beONE initiative, which seeks to foster missionary discipleship, promote human dignity and social responsibility, embrace a culture of leadership, and secure the future of Catholic education. All parish ministries and organizations are asked to have a representative or two or three from their leadership to be present for this day and should have already received an invitation. RSVP to Madeline in the Parish Office as soon as possible. Pray for our parish and for the success of this gathering!

John Denver Tribute Concert

John Denver has long been one of my favorite artists. On Sunday, September 11, at 3pm, several friends and I will perform 25 of his songs — including Follow Me, Sunshine on My Shoulders, Country Roads, Leaving on a Jet Plane, Back Home Again, Annie's Song, Calypso and many others at the Sisters of the Most Precious Blood—St. Joseph Chapel, 204 N. Main Street, O'Fallon, MO. This is a very informal and family friendly event. The beautiful chapel alone is worth a visit.

At the half-way point, we will take a free-will offering to benefit the St. Charles Outreach Coalition Against Human Trafficking. The Sisters of the Most Precious Blood are spearheading this project. For more information, please email Sister Esther Hogan at: ehogan@cpps-ofallon.org. Hope to see you on Sept. 11th, and as the late JD would have said, "Far Out!"
