A NEW WEEK — FR. JOHN VIEN

Today we begin the joyful season of Advent! The growing lights of our Advent wreath week after week remind us of the light that Christ brings to our dark world. The decorations and preparations remind us to prepare our hearts for Jesus Christ to enter. The gifts we give and receive remind us that Jesus is the greatest gift.

The "Universal Norms for the Liturgical Year and the Calendar" teach us that "Advent has a two-fold character, for it is a time of preparation for the Solemnities of Christmas, in which the First Coming of the Son of God to humanity is remembered, and likewise a time when, by remembrance of this, minds and hearts are led to look forward to Christ's Second Coming at the end of time. For these two reasons, Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight."

A period of devout and expectant delight! I love that phrase, and I think we would all do well to reflect on those words: Advent is a period of devout and expectant delight! Will you reflect with me on those three key words?

DEVOUT: Advent is above all a holy time! We should approach it with great devotion, for Advent is meant to turn our hearts to think of Christ. All too often we make these days harried and busy, and they are anything but devout. We worry about schedules and parties and fitting everything in, and we are far from devout. We can get crabby and angry and eat and drink too much, and we forget that this is a time when we Christians are called to be devout, religious, serious, and sincere. How will you make your Advent more devout?

EXPECTANT: Our society forgets that most of December is not the main event, it is only the prelude. For Catholic Christians, Advent is a time of preparation for the main event, which is Christmas, and which doesn't begin until the evening of December 24. If we do all of our partying and gift-giving and celebrating before Christmas, is it any wonder that we're ready to take down our tree and turn off our lights on December 26? No, Advent is a time to look forward to what we expect. Like a child anxiously anticipating Santa's gifts, we wait for the best night to arrive, so let's save some of the fun for Christmastime, shall we?

DELIGHT: Who but Ebenezer Scrooge or the Grinch does not enjoy these days? They are meant to be a delight! While it is true that Advent is not Christmas, it's not Lent either. Advent is not meant to be an overly penitential season that is marked by penance and soul-searching. No, it is meant to be a joyful season, a delightful time! While most folks don't go overboard on the penance during Advent, we can go overboard with all the stuff that fills these days and robs our joy. Bottom line: if you're not happy with your Advent days, if you find yourself more depressed and stressed than delighted and happy, then you're doing something wrong, for this is meant to be a time of delight!

I want to encourage you to do some things these days that will help you to celebrate this Advent as a time of devout, expectant delight. These are not things that are meant to make your December days more harried and busy and full, but suggestions that will help you remember to make this Advent a period of devout and expectant delight:

Have an Advent Wreath in your home and light the candles on Sunday nights or when your family gathers for a meal.

Get an Advent Calendar and open the little doors each day to reflect and prepare.

Celebrate St. Nicholas Day this coming December 6 by giving a small gift of some fruit or candy.

Remember Our Lady, the Immaculate Conception, by coming to Mass on her holy day of obligation next December 8.

Celebrate Our Lady of Guadalupe on December 12 by having a Mexican meal.

Reflect each day with a meditation from the Little Blue Book (available at the doors of Church) or some other spiritual reading.

Take an ornament from the Giving Tree and give a gift to someone in need.

Send a Christmas card to someone you love but don't see often enough; better yet, make a phone call or a visit and talk.

Make time for the Sacrament of Reconciliation at our Webster Groves Penance Service at Holy Redeemer on Monday, December 19.

Most of all, be devout, be expectant, take delight! The Lord is coming!

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Thursday, Dec. 8, is the Feast of Mary's Immaculate Conception, a holy day of obligation. Masses for the holy day will be celebrated at 6:45am, 8:00am, and 7:00pm. The Parish Offices and School are closed on the feast day; if you have parish or school business, please take care of that on another day.

Online Giving

Do You Use Online Banking? Many parishioners consider an Electronic Offertory Giving program to be a real service and they are grateful to their parishes for offering them this convenience, especially if they prefer to do all their other banking and bill paying online or electronically. It matches the way most people today are paid & thus give -- monthly or bi-monthly. Take advantage of our parish's Online Giving Program by going to <https://www.osvonlinegiving.com/2928>

GIVING TREE: Our annual Giving Tree will be up thru December 11. Please take an ornament or two from the tree & return by noon on Dec. 11. Your donations will benefit 5 organizations (names posted by the tree) in our area that serve those less fortunate than us. Thank you in advance for your generosity. Any questions, call Mary at 276-6140. NOTE: Please do not leave gift cards unattended under the tree. Either take them to the Parish Office or bring them on Sunday when someone will be there to accept them.

WRHM Adopt-A-Family Thanks in part to MQP's help through our Lenten Project, the expansion of the Webster-Rock Hill Ministries was a great success! We are trying to stay involved with this organization, which has been serving the poor right here in our own backyard for the past 25+ years, thanks to the ongoing support of all the churches in the community. WRHM has its own adopt-a-family program for Christmas. If you, your faith-sharing group, friends and/or neighbors are interested, it's easy to participate. You simply identify who (families with children/seniors/disabled/single adults/other) you'd like to help and how (gifts, a food basket, utility assistance, grocery gift cards, or any/all of the above) and you will be assigned a family. For more info, contact Mary Bufe mary@bufe.com

HAPPY NEW YEAR!

Today is the first Sunday of Advent, the beginning of the new church year! For your Advent prayer and meditation, the Little Blue Books and Advent Calendars are at the doors of Church. Also, extra copies of books that were previously given out in years past are also available; see if there is one you haven't read and make it part of your Advent prayer and preparation. Parish Calendars for 2017 are available at the doors of Church; thanks to Bopp Chapel for sponsoring and providing these calendars.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congrats to Mary James, a parishioner and graduate of MQP, presently attending St. Joseph's Academy. Mary was recently awarded a scholarship for her winning essay on Stewardship and the Annual Catholic Appeal!

Mary writes: "The Annual Catholic Appeal is a great way to make a difference in the lives of others across the Archdiocese. By contributing and participating in the ACA we are unifying the Archdiocese and living a life of stewardship by answering God's call to serve one another. We are given the opportunity to serve others and live as Jesus wanted us to live. These opportunities should not be taken for granted and we must always strive for the chance to make a difference."

Well done, Mary, and thanks for living Stewardship and promoting the Annual Catholic Appeal!

Mary Queen of Peace
CYC Chess Tournament Roster is being formed NOW:

Deadline to be added to the Roster — December 1

New this year, Mary Queen of Peace will be participating in the CYC Chess Tournaments. This is tournament play, not chess instruction. The chess tournaments are open to children in Kindergarten through 8th grade. CYC Chess operates differently than other MQP sports. If you think your child might be interested, please read on:

Mary Queen of Peace must submit ONE chess team roster to CYC. If your child would like to play in any of the chess tournaments for MQP, his or her name MUST be on the MQP roster. There is NO CHARGE to add your child's name to the roster. So if you think your child might want to enter even one tournament, you must send in your child's name to be added to the roster. Later, there is a $10 entry fee per child for EACH tournament and you can pick and choose which tournament(s) work for your family. The tournaments last most of the day and are as follows: December 3 at St. Margaret Mary; January 14 at Duchesne High School; February 11 at Loyola Academy; February 25 at CBC High School; and March 11 at Vianney High School (for championship -- qualifiers only).

At this point we are NOT asking for commitments for which tournament your child would like to enter, just whether your child would like to be added to the roster. Once we have the MQP roster we will circulate additional information to the registered families. To have your child added to the MQP chess roster (no charge to be added, only pay if you decide to enter a tournament), or if you have any questions about CYC chess, by December 1st please e-mail the following information to Suzanne Moore at suzjgau@yahoo.com -- Child's name, child's grade, parent's name, parent's phone number, parent's e-mail & US Chess Federation number (if your child has one).

Thank you! Athletic Association

LECTOR WORKBOOKS

This year, the parish has purchased Lector Workbooks for all those who proclaim the Scripture at Mass. We hope that these Workbooks will help you prayerfully prepare the Scripture readings for Mass so that the Word of God may be more effectively proclaimed in our midst. If you're a lector and have not yet received your Lector Workbook, please take one from the vesting sacristy in the back of Church.

Volleyball Lay Director Open Position

Have you been wanting to get involved in the MQP Athletic Association? Now is your chance! There is currently an open position for Volleyball Lay Director. This position will be taking over for the 2017 season. You do not need volleyball experience for this position! If you are interested or would like more info, please contact Kris Sluhan at mqpvball@gmail.com

*We pray for the repose
